WILSON IS MET BY THE ROYAL FAMILY

One of Largest Crowds Ever Assembled in Rome Gives City's Popular Welcome

5,000 TROOPS PRESENT ARMS

Program For Today Included Luncheon, Reception by Parliament and State Dinner

(By United Press.)

Rome, Jan. 3.—President Wilson's special train arrived at the station at 10:30 this morning. A tremendous cheer went up as the train stopped. The president and Mrs. Wilson were welcomed by King Victor Emmanuel and Queen Elena.

The president and the king inspected the guard of honor at the station and then the president shook hands with a group of officials including the American embassy staff, the British and Japanese ambassadors and American military officials.

As the royal carriage left the station the president was given a rousing greeting by American and British officials. Five thousand soldiers presented arms. One of the largest crowds Rome has ever seen massed by the troops and gave the city's welcome. The procession made its way through the streets accompanied by increasing cheers.

The large square appeared to be a solid mass of waving flags. Crowds thronged the streets and adorned the windows of every building, especially the windows of the Hotel Continental and the Prince Massimo's college. The President, deeply touched by the demonstration, remained with hat in hand for several minutes.

In the first carriage were the king's aids and Rear-Admiral Grayson. In the second were the king and the President, while the third contained the queen, Mrs. Wilson and the Duchess D'Aosta.

The procession moved slowly through the streets to the accompaniment of increasing cheers. In the Esedra square, in addition to flags and bunting and countless Venetian masts were topped with winged victories, allied flags and the coat of arms of every redeemed city. In the reviewing stand on the square sat the mayors of Rome, Trent, Trieste and Aspalat. The demonstration continued long after the presidential party had reached the quinal.

The program arranged for President Wilson's entertainment today included a luncheon with Queen Mother Margherita, a reception by the parliament and a state dinner with King Victor Emmanuel, following the visit to the President of a deputation from the quinal.

In the evening the citizenship of Rome will be conferred on Mr. Wilson.

Saturday there will be a luncheon at the American embassy in honor of the President. This also is the day set for his visit to Pope Benedict and for his reception to Protestant bodies at the American church. He will take dinner with the court. The President expects to leave for Genoa Sunday and possibly will go to Milan. Monday he will arrive at Turin, where he will make a short visit, leaving for Paris Monday night.

From the frontier to Rome the journey of President Wilson was like a triumphal procession. Mountaineers and villagers swarmed from the hills and valleys to the railroad over which the presidential train passed to pay homage to America. They shouted "vivas," waving hats and handkerchiefs and flags and forming picturesque groups which were emphasized by the brilliant sunshine, blue sky and green, luxuriant landscape. Bonfires, as signals of welcome, burned at many villages and towns along the line.

DRAKE MAKES ASSIGNMENT

Gates Ketchum is Appointed Trustee To Take Charge of Store

Jesse Drake, proprietor of a local five and ten cent store, has made an assignment and Gates Ketchum, a Rushville attorney, has been appointed trustee to take charge of his affairs. In making the voluntary assignment, Drake itemizes personal property valued at $1,935.55, including a number of small accounts. No real estate is listed in the schedule. Drake opened the store in West Second street, in the business room owned by Mrs. Minnie Abercrombie, several years ago.

NEW LOW MARK FOR WINTER IS SET TODAY

Temperature of Two Degrees Above Zero is Recorded by Government Thermometer at 7 a. m.

COLDER WEATHER TONIGHT

Another new low mark for the winter was set this morning at seven o'clock when the government thermometer at Manzy registered two degrees above zero, according to Elwood Kirkwood, county weather observer. This represented a drop of eleven degrees in twelve hours because the temperature at 6:30 yesterday evening was thirteen above. Yesterday morning's low mark was fourteen above.

Indications point to a further drop tonight, according to J. H. Armstrong, meteorologist at the Indiana weather bureau, and a temperature of zero or a few degrees below is expected by Saturday morning.

But along with the statement that sub-zero weather might be expected early in the morning, the weather man softened his "harsh words" somewhat by predicting a steady rise in temperature Saturday and said that by Saturday night decidedly warmer weather was to be expected. This sudden rise is predicted because of a depression which has formed in the northwest, and which caused the temperature in that region to rise from 30 to 40 degrees in the last twenty-four hours.

RESCUE SQUADS WORK AT TOP SPEED ALL DAY

Stirred by Menace of Approaching Blizzard. They Remove Troops From Transport

BLOCK AND TACKLE IS USED

(By United Press.)

Fire Island, New York, Jan. 3.—Stirred by the menace of an approaching blizzard, rescue squads worked at top speed to get all troops off the stranded Northern Pacific before the storm struck.

Some of the more seriously wounded were taken off by block and tackle and placed in life boats.

With the first ray of light today rescuing parties left their improvised lodgings and assembled on the beach in the pouring rain, prepared to resume the task abandoned yesterday at nightfall, of bringing ashore more than 2,000 soldiers from the transport stranded on a sandbar early Wednesday morning. Since the vessel went aground rain has fallen incessantly, imposing additional hardship on the rescuers, and this situation was unchanged at dawn today.

1,000 Troops Removed

New York, Jan. 3.—Information that approximately 1,000 troops, including some of the wounded, had been removed from the American transport Northern Pacific, aground at Fire Island, was received by navy department officials here at 10:30 a. m. today.

POSEY TOWNSHIP "BREAKS THE ICE"

First Petition For New Road Since War Ended is Filed With Commissioners

CEMENT HIGHWAY IS SOUGHT

Petitions Would Build it Under 3-Mile Road Law, Which Will Likely be Changed

Numerous petitions for new roads in Rush county, which were expected after the end of the war, because of the curtailment of public work for the last year, have not been forthcoming, but residents of Posey township "broke the ice" yesterday when they filed a petition in the auditor's office for the construction of a cement road under the three-mile road law through the town of Arlington.

The road which the property owners seek to have improved runs north and south through Arlington, and if the commissioners grant the petition, approximately a mile of the highway will be improved. The petition will probably come up for consideration before the commissioners at the first monthly meeting of the new year, to be held next Monday.

That there is a demand for the improvement in the vicinity through which the road runs is indicated by the fact that the petition was circulated less than a day and seventy-four signatures were obtained. The petition was drawn up in the auditor's office Wednesday and about two o'clock yesterday afternoon was placed on file with more than the required number of signers.

It is understood that there will be other petitions for new roads in Rush county. In ordinary times, several highways would have been built last year, some of them permanent, but road work has been practically at a standstill since the government took control of agencies which are used in public work, and directed practically all activities toward winning the war.

It is regarded as a very wise policy for taxpayers who want permanent roads built under the three-mile road law, to start their petitions at once because it is thought to be practically certain that this statute, which it is claimed, has caused so much injustice in Indiana, will be either repealed or strongly modified at the forthcoming meeting of the state legislature.

Previous to other meetings of the general assembly, there has been much agitation in favor of repealing all together or amending the three-mile road law, and it appears that the agitation will bear some fruit this time. The main objection to the three-mile road law is that it passes everyone in the township when a new road is built, instead of those who are immediately benefited.

All of the paved streets in Rushville were constructed under the three-mile road law with the exception of Third street, one block at the south end of Perkins street and one-half block at the east end of First street. Many contend that the law is just because, although property owners along the highway improved derive the greatest benefit, everyone is benefited to some extent on the theory that all use the streets and highways and that anything which improves the roads of a given city, town or community is beneficial to every person residing there.

RUMMAGE SALES FOR ARMY

Washington, Jan. 3.—Under a general order issued yesterday by the War Department, property owned by military units, such as pianos, phonographs, libraries, athletic goods and such articles, may be disposed of by the organization, and the funds thereby derived added to the unit fund.

KNOCK OFF CAR BY ELECTRIC CURRENT

Will Eck This Morning For Third Time Suffers Shock During his "Charmed" Life.

HIS RECOVERY IS PROBABLE

First Time he was Knocked off Car at I. & C. Shops. Eck Dislocated His Jaw

Will Eck received an electric shock while working on top of an interurban car at the Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction company's car barns this morning and was knocked off the car, receiving serious injuries. He was taken to Dr. Sexton's hospital and then removed to his home. Although the exact nature of his injuries are not determined, it is believed that he will recover.

Eck evidently has a "charmed" life because this morning's accident was the third time he has been shocked while working at the I. & C. car barns and the second time he has been knocked off the top of a car as the result of coming in contact with electric current.

This morning Eck lit on a pile of break shoes, and his jaw and the back of his head were badly cut and bruised. His right hand also was severely burnt by electricity.

The first thought of workmen when he fell off the car was that he had again dislocated his jaw, because this injury resulted before when he was knocked off while working on top of a car. At that time a wire was run through the upper and lower jaw to hold them in place while the dislocation mended.

Eck received 550 volts of electricity, which was grounded on top of the car. The after effects of an electric shock are always uncertain, but made it impossible today to ascertain definitely how seriously he was hurt.

CASE TO BE SENT TO THE APPELLATE COURT

Appeal of Laura Ivins Riley et al. in Suit to Establish a Lost Will

Granted

NEW TRIAL HAD BEEN DENIED

The case of Laura Ivins Riley and others against David Ivins and others, to establish a lost will, will be taken to the appellate court of Indiana, Judge Sparks having granted a motion for an appeal. The court returned finding and judgment for the defendant October 18 and the plaintiffs filed a motion for a new trial. When this morning was overruled, the appeal was sought.

The claim of John Titworth against Harry B. Armstrong as administrator of the estate of Ralph Armstrong, has been dismissed by the plaintiff and the costs paid.

Motions for new trials have been filed in two cases in which George W. Hall of Spiceland, formerly of this city, is the plaintiff. One is in the case against Jacob Parrish for $235 on a note, in which the court on December 6 returned finding and judgment for the defendant. The other suit was against Jacob and Ollie Parrish for $210 on a note, in which the court returned finding and judgment on the same date for the plaintiff in the sum of $68.90.

WANTS AN ARMY OF 500,000

Baker Advocates Force to Discharge Men In Service

(By United Press.)

Washington, Jan. 3.—Secretary of War Baker today advocated a temporary force army of 500,000 men to facilitate the quick discharge of men who have already seen service. A bill to authorize the organization of this army soon will be submitted to congress, Baker told the house military committee today. The army, he explained, would be of temporary nature and aid to hasten demobilization of present forces.

OMER COLLIER DIES AT CLEVELAND, OHIO

Flumonia Proves Fatal to Former Rushville Cigar Maker and Insurance Man

WIFE AND CHILDREN SICK

Omer Collier, age thirty-seven years, former cigar maker and insurance agent of this city, died of flumonia at a hospital in Cleveland, Ohio, yesterday evening at five o'clock, according to a telegram received by relatives last night. His wife and three children are also confined to the hospital, all afflicted with the influenza.

Relatives feared he would not survive when they learned that pneumonia had developed following the influenza. They first received word last Saturday that Mr. Collier probably had pneumonia and later word confirmed it. The condition of the widow is also said to be serious.

Mr. Collier left here about four months ago and had been working in an airplane factory in Cleveland. The remains will be sent from Cleveland tonight or tomorrow morning and no arrangements for the funeral will be made pending their arrival.

Mr. Collier is survived by the widow and three children, Eugene, Helen and Carson; his mother, Mrs. Mary Collier, of this city; one brother, Harry Collier of Dayton, O.; two sisters, Mrs. William O'Neal of this city and Mrs. Will Downey of Greensburg, and his father, John Collier of Bristow, Oklahoma.

DENT REFUSES TO HANDLE ARMY BILL

Insurgency of Chairman Means Measure will not be Presented to This Congress.

WILL BE UP TO REPUBLICANS

(By United Press.)

Washington, Jan. 3.—Representative Dent, chairman of the house military committee, has refused to handle the war department reorganization bill, it became known today. Dent's insurgency makes it practically certain that the peace time military policy of this nation will not be decided at the present congress.

Representative Kahn, who will become chairman of the committee when the republicans assume control after March 4, will go to Europe this spring to confer with General Pershing and other officials. Data thus gathered will be used to build an army reorganization bill. He and his republican colleagues have decided not to follow the general staff plan. This situation is largely responsible for delay in presenting the bill to congress.

NEW ALTITUDE RECORD

Ipswich, England, Jan. 3.—A new airplane altitude record of 30,500 feet was established here by Captain Lang, pilot-observer. The motor stopped at that height due to exhaustion of their petrol supply, but they landed safely.

APPRAISED VALUE PROPERTY HIGHER

Net Valuation in 1918 Amounts to $24,394,480 as Compared With $22,703,770 in 1917

AN INCREASE OF $1,690,710

Taxes Collectable This Year Are $3,707.40 Greater Than in 1918 Despite Lower Rates

The total net appraised value of the property in Rush county, on which taxes should be paid this year is $24,394,480, as compared to a net valuation in 1917 of $22,703,770. This shows an increase in appraised valuation of $1,690,710, which is due to the fact that assessors last year assessed personal property higher.

Taxes to be collected this year, on paper figure $651,443.23, not counting $647.15 in delinquent taxes due, as compared with $648,735.83 falling due last year. The increase in taxes collectable this year as compared with last year is $3,707.40, which is accounted for by the higher valuation, in spite of the fact that the rate is lower in every unit in the county with the exception of Rushville city, Glenwood and Rushville township. A reduction of five cents in the county tax was instrumental in lowering the rates.

The rate for this year in Rushville city is $4.00 as compared with $3.98 last year and in Rushville township $2.74 as compared with $2.61 in 1918. Glenwood's rate is $2.96 and last year was $2.80.

Other rates are as follows: Carthage $3.62, alt year $3.74; Ripley township $2.27, last year $2.50; Posey $2.30, last year $2.53; Walker $2.86, last year $3.10; Orange $2.75, last year $2.85; Anderson $2.65, last year $2.90; Jackson $2.18, last year $2.50; Center $2.09, last year $2.37; Washington $2.09, last year $2.33; Union $2.41, last year $2.60; Noble $2.15, last year $2.57; Richland $1.85, last year $2.39.

The polls listed on the 1918 abstract of taxable property number 3,158 as compared with 3,386 in 1917, the decrease probably being due to so many men of voting age leaving the county on account of the war.

The total net value of the taxables is higher in every unit than in 1917. Appraised values by townships, corporations and cities, on which taxes will be paid this year are as follows:

Carthage $487,330, Ripley township $1,596,365, Posey $1,922,765, Walker $1,599,765, Orange $1,622,705, Anderson $2,064,425, Rushville township $2,311,380, Jackson $1,152,190, Center $1,819,830, Washington $1,567,225, Glenwood corporation $130,585, Union $1,928,285, Noble $1,676,540, Richland $1,268,690, Rushville city $3,226,400.

The taxables are divided as follows:

Lands, $11,049,350; improvements, $2,149,710; lots, $680,075; improvements on lots, $1,507,920; total value of real estate, $15,387,055; mortgage exemptions (to be deducted) $462,935; net value of real estate, $14,924,120; steam and electric railroad property, $1,406,340; telegraph and telephone property, $126,600; express company property, $15,350; personal and corporation property $7,922,070.

MANN MAKES CRITICISM

Washington, Jan. 3.—Republican Leader Mann, in the house yesterday criticised the war department for delay in paying soldiers and in dispensing allotments to dependents. Without naming any one, Mr. Mann said much of the trouble was due to the ignorance of department officials and employees and that "Secretary Baker ought to wring the neck of some until they find out how to work."

MAKE HURRIED SURVEY OF THE HOG SITUATION

County Agent and Food Administrator to Supply State Administration With Information

LOOKING FOR URGENT CASES

The county food administrator and the county agent have been made responsible for information necessary for the federal food administrator to direct the supply of ears to the places of greatest need.

County Food Administrator Lovett and County Agent Detrick are making a hurried survey of the number of hogs to be shipped during this month, and the herds that are finished and are now feeding at a loss. This information will be furnished Dr. Barnard who will use it directing ears to where the need is most urgent.

When hogs are finished and are being fed beyond the point of profit or the farmer is out of feed and cannot find feed, the report on that herd will be marked "urgent," and a special effort will be made to relieve the situation.

It is not expected that the market difficulties will exist much longer. The heavy run of hogs is usually about the middle of December, but is later this winter because the hogs have been held back by embargoes.

How This Little Boy

Recovered Strength After Sickness

Garrett, Texas.—"The measles left my little boy aged nine years in a very weak, run down condition—he coughed a good deal, and as medicines did not seem to help him, we finally took him out of school, and thought he would never be strong again. One day I read about the cod liver and iron tonic known as Vinol, and such a change as it has made in my little boy—it stopped his cough, he is now back in school, strong and well."—Mrs. E. A. There is nothing like Vinol to restore strength, appetite and vim to pale, sickly children. We strongly recommend Vinol for this purpose. F. B. Johnson & Co., Druggists, and Druggists Everywhere.

WOMEN REPATRIATED BY BRITISH GOV'T

Sixty Thousand Women in England Today, Waiting to Sail For Home

London, Dec. 17. (By Mail)—American, British and Dominion women stranded on the other side of the ocean from home, are going to be repatriated very soon, the British government has decided.

Sixty thousand Canadian women are in England today, waiting for the ban to be lifted so they can return home. The first lot of them sailed late in November. Others will follow as rapidly as possible.

The number of American women is negligible, according to the American consulate. The American government did not put any obstacles in the way of American women wishing to cross the ocean, as did the British government, and the American consulate in England has been issuing women's passports all along. Those who are stranded here remained voluntarily rather than risk U-boats.

The British government's decision to refuse passports to British women during the war left English women in foreign lands completely cut off from their homes.

PIGS GET WORMS VERY YOUNG

The time to commence feeding ACME WORM BOUNCER is from the time they are old enough to eat. Feed from birth to maturity. It will only take a few cents worth to do it, and as "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," it certainly pays to start the pig off right, and if you do so you can keep him right. Worms are persistent pests and they must be fought continuously. There is more money in keeping your pigs free of worms than to let them get worms and even expel them.

A Big Splash

The day after the signing of the armistice on November 11th the first American shells filled with poison gas reached France. They were the product of a gas producing plant in Maryland upon which the Government had expended $60,000,000. It is true that some gas had been shipped in containers to England and France, there to be placed in shells for the use of the American forces, but the fact remains that the history of the gas service is very closely a repetition of the story of the ordnance and aviation programs—tremendous preparation with mighty little to show for it at the fighting front.

Like the ordnance experts and the officials of the air service, those in charge of the chemical section of the War Department are now engaged in convincing the people that just as the armistice was signed they were on the point of beginning to get ready to start shipments of their product to our armies. Glowing stories are told of the immense amount of gas produced, as if that were the test of efficiency. They claim that "the tons of poisonous gases ready for shipment abroad was considered to be one of the greatest military assets of the nation." Stress is laid on the fact that all along the Atlantic seaboard arsenals, magazines, fields and docks were stacked high with gas containers. Attention is called to the fact that adjoining the $60,000,000 gas plant there is a ten-acre field filled with containers, each holding a ton of the murderous stuff.

And now all this is to end in a big splash. The gas is a total loss. It cannot be converted into any useful purpose, and is a positive danger to the community. As a means of safe disposal it is proposed to take it all out to sea and dump it overboard. What an anti-climax!

Moreover, the hitherto insignificant copper has stepped on the top round of the ladder of public notice. Even the popular nickel cannot pass for much these days without his smooth-rimmed side-kick—the penny.

And with all the humorous recollections of the humble dainty—the Nut—we must from now on look upon its shelly skin as a two-fold forethought of the Creator. Firstly, to protect the kernel in the nut; secondly, to protect privates and Colonels from the gas escapades of another specie of Nuts found betwixt the Rhine and the Baltic Sea.

And say, what has happened to Billy Sunday? Someone must accept the credit for ending the war and forcing the Kaiser to change his views. Surely so able a body as our Rev. William who has turned so many thousands of men from their old tactics, will not let the laurel pass when there is only one, outcast, penitent dutchman in question.

Perhaps Billy, though, shuns the oddity of having to publicly observe that a fellow possessing such a grand and upright non de plume as William needs assistance to place his oxfords on the gates-ajar-path.

LEGISLATURE MAY NOT MEET 60 DAYS

Some Believe Entire Program can be Completed in Five Weeks if There is no Hitch

LEGISLATORS HAVE BILLS

One Important Measure is Provision of Commission to Study Social Legislation.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 3.—That the legislative session which opens a week from today will not continue the full constitutional time—sixty days—was the belief expressed by administration leaders today. If there is no hitch in the work, some legislative leaders see no reason why the entire program cannot be completed in five weeks.

The republicans will have such a large working majority in each house that unless some unforeseen difficulty arises, they will be able to put through bills, which are already prepared and which have been studied and discussed by the legislators in record time.

Bills drafted by republican leaders of the house and senate carrying out the party's platform pledges, are now in the hands of the legislators. They will be introduced at the opening of the session.

One of the most important measures which has been distributed is that providing for appointment of a commission to study social legislation. The measure was prepared by Sen. Hudgins of Martinsville and Representative Johnsons of Gas City.

It provides that the governors shall appoint a commission of 5 at least one of whom is a woman, to be known as the commission on social legislation.

The members will serve without pay, but allowance is made for their expenses. The committee duty will be to make a careful study of social conditions in the state and make a report to the governor before September 1920, submitting recommendations for legislation including housing, employment, education, illiteracy, Americanization, health, marriage laws, mental defects, and social insurance.

Another similar bill provides for appointment of a commission to study child welfare in the state.

ASKS CONGRESS TO CONTINUE CONTROL

Director General McAdoo Says Government Management Should be Given Fair Test

STATEMENT TO COMMITTEE

Predicts Surplus of $100,000,000 Can be Built up For Government During Year

(By United Press.)

Washington, Jan. 3.—Return of the railroads to the several hundred companies, which owned them before the war, is impossible if certain reforms are to be preserved, Director General McAdoo declared in a statement to the senate interstate commerce committee today.

McAdoo declared there are three alternatives in the railroad situation: 1—return to the several hundred companies controlling them before the war; 2—government ownership and control; 3—reconstruction of the railroad may so as to wipe out the hundreds of different companies and substitute a few under strict government control, to combine the advance of unified operation with the initiative of private management.

McAdoo presented a complete review of the policies inaugurated by the railroad administration.

McAdoo warned congress that unless a fair time is given for a test of these policies through continuation of the government control, the government will not feel like holding the roads for the entire 21 month period after the war, which the law fixed as the limit of federal control. He urged congress to continue government control until January 1, 1924, as a means of providing a fair test.

McAdoo predicted that if government control is continued a surplus of $100,000,000 or more will be built up for the government during the year.

He also predicted reduction in rates by the end of 1919. McAdoo said a deficit of about $135,000,000 existed at the end of 1918. This he said is remarkably small because increased rates were in effect for a little more than half of 1918, whereas increased wages and other higher costs appeared all through the year.

(By United Press.)

Paris, Jan. 3.—Herbert Hoover has been designated director general of the food release measures for neutral and enemy territory, it was officially announced today.

Germany merchant ships surrendered to the allies under terms of the armistice will soon be available for transporting American troops home, it was learned from an authoritative source today.

In return for the use of German ships, the United States will employ American tonnage in carrying food supplies to Europe. The arrangement, it is understood, was made by American officials and have been accepted by allied associates.

The funeral services of Private Ross Kennedy, who died at Fort Bliss, Texas, last Sunday, were not held at Carthage this afternoon as originally planned, because the body failed to arrive last night, and instead the services will take place at the Fletcher M. E. church Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Burial will take place in the Carthage cemetery. A military escort of Carthage soldiers will meet the train, a bugler will sound "Lights Out" over the grave. The remains may be viewed at the home of Hiram Henley tomorrow afternoon from 1 to 5 and in the evening from 7 to 10.

auspices of the Rushville Ministerial association. Mr. Flowers' brilliant, forensic lectures have been the wonder and admiration of audiences which have heard him, and the subjects with which he now deals make them especially entertaining and instructive. It will be the first opportunity of a Rushville audience to hear Mr. Flowers and his coming is eagerly awaited.

THREE MEMBERS OF OLD CO. B ARE LUCKY

Private Charles E. Hokey Says He Hopes Remainder of Unit is
as Fortunate

HEAR GERMAN SHELLS BURST

Private Charles E. Hokey, Battery E, 146th Field Artillery, writing from France, expresses the hope that the remainder of old company B men are as fortunate as he and two others with him. He writes as follows:

I am writing from an old French Y. M. C. A. near Blerecourt. We are fifteen miles west of Verdun. There are three company B men in the regiment, Private Elmer Taylor and Private Lawrence Dugout. We are all in hopes of being home within the next few months. Our officers furnish transportation for any of us that care to visit Verdun on Sunday. We are drilling about four hours a day and have plenty to eat and lots of good clothing. We have heard that the remainder of the 38th division is on this side but have never been able to meet them. We all hope that they will have the good luck that we have had.

We sailed from New York June 12 and landed June 21. We sailed down the Irish sea, getting a good view of Ireland and Scotland. We then took a train to Romey, which is a very interesting old town. After remaining there three days we marched to South Hampton and took an English ship to La Havre, France. We landed in France July 10 and were sent out from there as replacement to different divisions on the front. We have all heard and seen German shells burst. We live in hopes of visiting Germany on our way back. France is a very interesting place, full of stone villages and mostly surrounded by stone walls. The streets are narrow with no sidewalks. The civilian population is beginning to return to their homes and they all seem happy and do not care if they do find one end shot out of their homes. They are repairing as many of them as they can and getting the materials for others. We are all loaded with souvenirs which we are in hopes of bringing home with us.

FIRST "FLU" OF NEW YEAR

Four New Cases Are Reported in Rushville This Morning

After two "fluless" days in the new year, four new cases of the malady in Rushville were reported this morning. The reports showed one of them had developed on the first day of the year and the remainder yesterday. 'BLACK BOYS' MAKE SAFE TRIP CERTAIN

Hundreds of These Men Work Forty Feet Below the Water Line in the Vessel.

IN DANGEROUS POSITION

Crew of George Washington on Four Hour, off Eight Hours as Schedule of Work.

Paris, Dec. 15. (By Mail.)—The "black boys" they call the men aboard the George Washington who run the boilers and engines and were responsible for the safe prompt arrival of President Wilson to peace party in France.

There are hundreds of these men who work forty feet below the water line in the vessel and who in time of danger, have about one chance in a score of escaping if the boat is mined or torpedoed.

Their first job when they got aboard the George Washington, seized more than a year ago, was to get her boilers and machinery in order after the Germans had sought to put her out of commission. They found the great cylinders in the engine room broken; pistons were bent almost double, and many pieces were thrown overboard.

"I will take my hat off to the men who can get this boat in shape to be of any use in this war," was the boast of the vessel's German commander when his destructive job completed. His hat may be taken off to members of the "black gang," they got things back into shape in time to transport over 50,000 American troops to France in the last year. The first trip was made just one year ago this month.

These boys have an "on four hours" off eight hours" schedule of work. With their daily drills, inspections, etc, they get a maximum of five and a half hours sleep in 24. Yet they're a happy bunch and their leisure is rendered pleasantly by music in their great sleeping room, entertainments of all kinds, and good food.

CONNERSVILLE WILL PLAY

Basketball Game at the Graham Annex Gymnasium Tonight

Rushville will meet a time-honored opponent, Connerville, in a basketball game at the Graham Annex this evening. The rivalry between these two high schools is probably greater than that between Rushville and any other school. For this reason a large crowd always gathers when Connerville plays because it is certain there will be a fast game. The dope is all favorable to Rushville since the team has struck its stride and defeated both Brookville and Richmond.

DAILY HEALTH TALKS

What Doctor Pierce Has Done For Humanity!

BY DOCTOR CRIFFS.

It has always seemed to me that Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., should be placed near the top when a list of America's great benefactors is written. He studied and conquered human diseases to a degree that few realize. Whenever he found a remedy that overcame disease, he at once announced it in the newspapers and told where it could be bought at a small price. He did not follow the usual custom of keeping the ingredients secret, so that the rich only could afford to buy the medicine, but openly printed the name of each root and herb he used. And so to-day the names of Dr. Pierce and his medicines are widely known, and they stand for better health and better citizenship.

One of this great physician's most successful remedies is known as Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. These are little, sugar-coated pills, composed of Mayapple, leaves of aloe, root of jalap—things that Nature grows in the ground. These Pellets are safe because they move the bowels gently, leaving no bad after-effects, as so many pills do. Very often they make a person who takes them feel like a new man or woman, for they cleanse the intestines of hard, decayed and poisonous matter that accumulates when one is constipated. If you are constipated, by all means go to your druggist and get some of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They may prove to be the very thing your system requires to make you well and happy.

REPORTS MADE TO ASSIST WAR BOARD

Report for Week Ending Dec. 24 Shows State Labor Supply and Demand About Equal.

SURPLUS IN INDIANAPOLIS

Surplus of 3,000 Workers Reported in Toledo, and 500 in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 3.—Reports received by telegram each week by United States Department of Labor, serve as a barometer in making replacements, allocating labor, curtailment and cancellation of war contracts and the demobilization of the Army, according to a statement authorized today by the United States Employment Service. These reports are compiled for the information and assistance of the Community War Labor Boards, Directors of the Public Service Reserve, County Agricultural agents and agencies co-operating with them in their work as Bureaus for the Returning Soldiers, Sailors and Civilian War Workers.

The report for the week ending Dec. 24th show that in Indiana the labor supply and demand are about equal, except in Indianapolis, where there is a surplus.

Through the Middle West, a small shortage is reported from Joliet, Ill., and in other parts of the same state the supply and demand are about equal. In Detroit, Michigan the supply is said to be sufficient to take care of all demands.

From Ohio, a surplus of 3,000 workers is reported in Toledo, 500 more are reported idle in Cincinnati and in Dayton there are 5,000 unemployed who formerly were engaged largely on war contracts. Akron shows a shortage of 2,000, which is 1,000 less than the shortage reported for the previous week. Youngstown where also a shortage was reported, now has a more nearly sufficient supply of workers.

The report from every section of the nation shows the iron and steel and leather products to be about "holding their own" in the total of men employed as compared with the previous week; food products show an increased number employed; miscellaneous industries, which include those not classified under one of the principal basic lists, and the Textile products show substantial gains. Shortages continue in the mining districts of Pennsylvania and in the mills of New England. On the Pacific coast there is unemployment in San Francisco and Oakland, with other large centers reporting the supply equal to the demand.

For the week ending December 14th the Employment Service registered 132,798 referred 127,315 and placed 94,026. Of the registration 116,013 were men, 16,785 women.

Applications for help filed during the week totaled 273,636, of which 240,619 were for men and 33,018 for women.

APPEALED TO BRITISH MINISTRY ABOUT TEA

Colony at Peace Conference Feared it Would Have to Give up Time-Honored Custom

AGAINST PARIS FOOD RULE

London, Dec. 14.—(By Mail.)—Great Britain's official colony—between 400 and 900 strong—at the peace conference, is going to have home British cooking, cooked from British food by British cooks at the government's expense.

The famous British tea hour falls in a period during which French food restrictions forbid the serving of milk. Alarmed at the prospect of "no tea," several prospective delegates appealed to the British food ministry to see if "something couldn't be done."

The result was it was discovered that owing to high prices in Paris, the government could save about 50 percent by providing the food itself, cooking it and serving it independently of Parisian caterers, in the 3 hotels requisitioned by the French governments for the British staffs.

The army and navy canteen board will have charge.

LAXATIVE for Aged People

THE BANE of old age is constipation. The bowels become weak and unable to perform their functions without aid. For this purpose only the mildest and gentlest laxative should be used. The use of harsh cathartics aggravates the trouble and makes the constipation worse. Chamberlain's Tablets are a favorite with people of middle age and older on account of their gentle action.

Foley's Honey and Tar for This!

Stops La Grippe Coughs!

The quickest and simplest way to stop an ugly, hard, la grippe cough is to take Foley's Honey and Tar.

In it, you get the curative influence of the pine balsam (so beneficial for inflamed bronchial tubes and sore chest) and other healing ingredients, together with the mollifying laxative action of honey.

It covers and sheathes the inflamed surfaces of the throat, puts an end to the hard, racking cough, stops tickling and hoarseness.

Bedford, Ind., F. G. Prevo writes: "Two bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar cured me of a severe cough following an attack of la grippe."

While this play has the recent world conflict as a back ground, it is a mistake to call it a war play, as it has no battle scenes and neither shot nor shell is fired during the entire performance; rather the scenes abound with love, humor and romance. The scenes are laid in a delightful family hotel on the coast of England—a spot from which the British Admiralty has reason to believe important messages are being sent to Berlin concerning the movement of American troops. The story is that of a man who stays at home, and is accused by his friends of being a coward and a slacker by his failure to respond to his coun-

An Interview

An interview with Knecht & Gartin, local Buick distributors, makes certain that the purchaser of a Buick car between now and the end of the 1919 season is not running any chance that the price will be subject to further change during that period.

"We have just received a letter from the Home Office," said Messrs. Knecht and Gartin, "containing the revised price schedule effective January first, 1919, covering the various Buick models during the remainder of the season. Four models have been reduced in price and the other two remain untouched.

"There has been considerable speculation as to what the Buick Motor Company was going to do about the prices of their cars, as the close of the war left things in such an uncertain condition regarding the price and quantities of raw material available that a good many people felt it would be impossible for the really big manufacturers to find their bearings for some time to come.

"This prompt action on the part of the Company shows that they have been able to clear the situation up sooner than anybody expected, and I for one am delighted with the announcement so early in the season.

"Their war orders which have been demanding the major part of their energies have been completed and the announcement of the present prices is evidence that the Buick Motor Company now has a measure of the situation and sufficient material is in sight that will permit laying out a definite building schedule which again proves the buyer of a Buick automobile is at all times protected against unwarranted price changes.

"Orders for Buick cars are piling up on us very fast and I feel reasonably sure that we shall be able to take care of the greater part of them within a reasonable time. We shall continue to follow our old policy of filling orders, and will make every effort to see that no favoritism is shown our waiting list which plan has worked out so admirably in the past.

"Buick enthusiasts appreciate the importance of this announcement, because all uncertainty has now been removed, both as to the possibility of getting Buick cars this year and the possibility of the prices being raised or lowered."—Adv.

GETS 10 TIMES MORE EGGS, AND TELLS HOW

One-Fifth of Mr. Miller's Hens Laid Twice As Much As All The Others

"We separated 20 hens that didn't lay and fed them Don Sung. The balance of our 120 hens we left in the hen house. All received the same care. The 20 that got Don Sung commenced to lay about a week after receiving it; already we are getting from 4 to 9 eggs a day from them. The 100 hens not receiving Don Sung only laid from 1 to 4 eggs a day."—Andrew D. Miller, Kokomo, Ind.

Mr. Miller had read a lot about Don Sung, and naturally wanted to try it. He started feeding it in zero weather (January, 1918), one of the coldest months in history. His results speak for themselves. You can try Don Sung, as he did, under this offer:

Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that Don Sung pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, simply tell us and your money will be refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) works directly on the egg-laying organs, and is also a splendid tonic. It is easily given in feed, improves the hen's health, makes her stronger and more active, in any weather, and starts her laying. Try Don Sung for 30 days and if it doesn't get you the eggs, no matter how cold or wet the weather, your money will be refunded.

Lafayette, Ind., Jan. 3.—Indiana's gardens yielded a crop worth $15,000,00 last summer, according to estimates by Purdue University experts. Arrangements are already being made to continue the home garden movement on a large scale next spring and summer.

Six hundred and forty thousand gardens were planted in the state it is estimated. This was an increase in number of 28 percent and an increase in value of products by 50 percent over the previous year.

About 100,000 acres were devoted to growing garden stuff for home consumption.

or both installments will become delinquent and subject to a penalty.

The Second Installment must be paid on or before the
FIRST MONDAY IN NOVEMBER, 1919.

No tax receipts will be held out until taxes are paid in full.

Extracts From the Statutes of Indiana.

That each person or taxpayer charged with taxes on a duplicate in the hands of a County Treasurer may pay the full amount of such taxes on or before the first Monday in May, or may at his option, pay one-half thereof on or before the first Monday in May, and the remaining half on or before the first Monday in November, in the manner prescribed by law. All road taxes to be added to the first installment. When the first installment is not paid prior to the first Monday in May, the taxes for the whole year become delinquent. The Treasurer will not be responsible for the penalty and charges on Delinquent Taxes resulting from any omission of the person paying to state definitely on what property, in whose name and in what township or corporation it was assessed. Persons owing Delinquent Taxes should pay them at once. The late law is of such character that there is no option left the Treasurer but to enforce the collection of delinquent taxes, however much he may regret to collect the same, by sale of property. The owner of the property on the first day of March in any year, shall be liable for the payment of all taxes of that year. The purchaser of property on the first day of March shall be considered as owner on that day.—Sec. 103. All property, both personal and real, situated in any county, shall be liable for the taxes, penalties, interests, and costs to the owners thereof, in such county, and no partial payment of such taxes, penalties, interests or costs shall discharge or release any part or portion of such property until the whole be paid; which lien shall in no wise be affected or destroyed by any sale or transfer of any such personal property.—Sec. 644, R. S.

The Treasurer has no option in rebating the penalty on taxes allowed to go delinquent. Taxpayers are particularly notified that all Road Tax is due and payable with the first installment. No County Order will be paid to persons owing delinquent taxes and all parties are warned against buying the same.

The Annual Sale of Delinquent Lands and Lots will take place on the Second Monday in February, 1919.

PARTICULAR ATTENTION

TAXPAYERS SHOULD EXAMINE THEIR RECEIPTS before leaving the Treasurer's Office, and see that they are correct. Those who have lands or other property in more than one township, must see that they have a receipt for all.

Rushville, Indiana, January 1st, 1919.

CHARLES A. FRAZEE,
Treasurer of Rush County.

AUDITOR'S SPECIAL NOTICE

Parties having School Fund Loans on which interest is delinquent will please give the payment of said interest their attention before March 1st, as the law requires the prompt collection of said interest.

HUNS STARTED TO ROOF OVER THESEA

Germans Built Trainsheds to Shelter Submarines at Bruges, From Dropping Bombs

CONCRETE ROOFS 11 FT. THICK

4,000 Workmen Employed in Building Sheds Until Huns Forced to Abandon Bruges

(By United Press.)

London, Dec. 14. (By Mail.—The Germans built great "trainsheds" in the water to shelter their submarines at Bruges, Belgium, from bombs dropped from the air.

The sheds have concrete roofs 11 feet thick, and are of massive proportions. From early in 1917 until the Huns were forced to abandon Bruges altogether, 4,000 workmen were employed in building the great sheds for the undersea boats.

Hundreds of concrete pillars, each 2 feet thick and 25 feet high, supported the heavy roof. Eight of the shelters had been completed, and the 9th was being built, when the Germans decided to run along home.

In the very early days of the war, the Germans clearly planned the harbors at Zeebrugge and Ostend as permanent bases and repair stations for their submarines, the original boats being built at the Hoboken Works, near Antwerp. The first large repair works appear to have been situated at the Atelier de la Marine at Ostend, but it is probable that the docks at Bruges which are connected with Zeebrugge by a ship canal, were being developed at an early period of the war.

Largely owing to offensive naval operations off the Belgian coast, assisted by aircraft, the 2 harbors became exceedingly unhealthy shelters for such comparatively fragile craft as submarines, and after the bombardment of May 1916, the large floating docks at Ostend were towed round to Zeebrugge, and so up to Bruges.

Following up this initial victory with great vigor British airmen commenced, in January, 1917, an intensive bombing campaign, directed chiefly against the docks at Bruges, the lock-gates and harbor at Zeebrugge, and the Ship Canal itself, which was, of course, the only outlet by which the submarine could gain access to the sea.

Some idea of the severity of these attacks may be gained from the fact that no fewer than 6123 bombs were dropped upon Bruges docks alone, while a similarly large number were dropped upon Zeebrugge and Ostend.

Apart from the immense and continuous damage caused to the Mole, sidings, quays, railways and shipping at Zeebrugge, the lock-gates themselves—a singularly difficult target to hit even from a low height—were kept practically always under repair. Indeed, on several occasions, as the result of direct hits by British airmen, one of the gates had to be removed by immense floating cranes, and a spare gate fitted, the damaged gate being towed laboriously to Bruges for repair in dry dock.

Owing to the great damage which was caused by the Germans upon their evacuation of the docks, it is difficult to differentiate between their deliberate work and the destructions resulting from the terrific bombing from the air during the last few months of the war. Information from various sources, however, makes it abundantly clear that the enemy's decision to give up the Port of Bruges, as repair base for submarines, was in the main, due to his inability to defend it against the increasingly powerful attacks from the air.

The biggest explosion ever experienced in Bruges was caused by British airmen at La Brugeoise works, May 31, 1918. The concussion was felt all over the city, and the flames lit up the sky for many miles around. It is said that the explosion wrought so much destruction of valuable machinery that work was never properly resumed in these extensive factories.

London's 22,000 policemen guard more than 4,000 miles of streets and at least 1,250,000 houses and shops.

WILSON IS MET BY THE ROYAL FAMILY

One of Largest Crowds Ever Assembled in Rome Gives City's Popular Welcome

5,000 TROOPS PRESENT ARMS

Program For Today Included Luncheon, Reception by Parliament and State Dinner

(By United Press.)

Rome, Jan. 3.—President Wilson's special train arrived at the station at 10:30 this morning. A tremendous cheer went up as the train stopped. The president and Mrs. Wilson were welcomed by King Victor Emmanuel and Queen Elena.

The president and the king inspected the guard of honor at the station and then the president shook hands with a group of officials including the American embassy staff, the British and Japanese ambassador and American military officials.

As the royal carriage left the station the president was given a rousing greeting by American and British officials. Five thousand soldiers presented arms. One of the largest crowds Rome has ever seen massed by the troops and gave the city's welcome. The procession made its way through the streets accompanied by increasing cheers.

The large square appeared to be a solid mass of waving flags. Crowds thronged the streets and adorned the windows of every building, especially the windows of the Hotel Continental and the Prince Massimo's college. The President, deeply touched by the demonstration, remained with hat in hand for several minutes.

In the first carriage were the king's aids and Rear-Admiral Grayson. In the second were the king and the President, while the third contained the queen, Mrs. Wilson and the Duchess D'Aosta.

The procession moved slowly through the streets to the accompaniment of unceasing cheers. In the Esedra square, in addition to flags and hunting and countless Venetian masts were topped with winged victories, allied flags and the coat of arms of every redeemed city. In the reviewing stand on the square sat the mayors of Rome, Trent, Trieste and Aspalat. The demonstration continued long after the presidential party had reached the quinal.

The program arranged for President Wilson's entertainment today included a luncheon with Queen Mother Margherita, a reception by the parliament and a state dinner with King Victor Emmanuel, following the visit to the President of a deputation from the quinal.

In the evening the citizenship of Rome will be conferred on Mr. Wilson. Saturday there will be a luncheon at the American embassy in honor of the President. This also is the day set for his visit to Pope Benedict and for his reception to Protestant bodies at the American church. He will take dinner with the court. The President expects, to leave for Genoa Sunday and possibly will go to Milan. Monday he will arrive at Turin, where he will make a short visit, leaving for Paris Monday night.

From the frontier to Rome the journey of President Wilson was like a triumphal procession. Mountaineers and villagers swarmed from the hills and valleys to the railroad over which the presidential train passed to pay homage to America. They shouted "viva," waving hats and handkerchiefs, and flags and forming picturesque groups which were emphasized by the brilliant sunshine, blue sky and green, luxuriant landscape. Bonfires, as signs of welcome, burned at many places and towns along the line.

In making the voluntary assignment, Drake itemizes personal property valued at $1,035.55, including a number of small accounts. No real estate is listed in the schedule. Drake opened the store in West Second street, in the business room owned by Mrs. Minnie Abercrombie, several years ago.

NEW LOW MARK FOR WINTER IS SET TODAY

Temperature of Two Degrees Above Zero is Recorded by Government Thermometer at 7 a. m.

COLDER WEATHER TONIGHT

Another new low mark for the winter was set this morning at seven o'clock when the government thermometer at Mauney registered two degrees above zero, according to Elwood Kirkwood, county weather observer. This represented a drop of eleven degrees in twelve hours because the temperature at 6:30 yesterday evening was thirteen above. Yesterday morning's low mark was fourteen above.

Indications point to a further drop tonight, according to J. H. Armstrong, meteorologist at the Indiana weather bureau, and a temperature of zero or a few degrees below is expected by Saturday morning.

But along with the statement that sub-zero weather might be expected early in the morning, the weather man softened his "harsh words" somewhat by predicting a steady rise in temperature Saturday and said that by Saturday night decidedly warmer weather was to be expected. This sudden rise is predicted because of a depression which has formed in the northwest, and which caused the temperature in that region to rise from 30 to 40 degrees in the last twenty-four hours.

RESCUE SQUADS WORK AT TOP SPEED ALL DAY

Stirred by Menace of Approaching Blizzard, They Remove Troops From Transport

BLOCK AND TACKLE IS USED

(By United Press.)

Fire Island, New York, Jan. 3.—Stirred by the menace of an approaching blizzard, rescue squads worked at top speed to get all troops off the stranded Northern Pacific before the storm struck.

Some of the more seriously wounded were taken off by block and tackle and placed in life boats. With the first ray of light today rescuing parties left their improvised lodgings and assembled on the beach in the pouring rain, prepared to resume the task abandoned yesterday at nightfall, of bringing ashore more than 2,000 soldiers from the transport stranded on a sandbar early Wednesday morning. Since the vessel went aground rain has fallen incessantly, imposing additional hardship on the rescuers, and this situation was unchanged at dawn today.

1,000 Troops Removed

New York, Jan. 3.—Information that approximately 1,000 troops, including some of the wounded, had been removed from the American transport Northern Pacific, aground at Fire Island, was received by navy department officials here at 10:30 today.

POSEY TOWNSHIP

"BREAKS THE ICE"

First Petition For New Road Since War Ended is Filed With Commissioners

CEMENT HIGHWAY IS SOUGHT

Petitions Would Build it Under 3-Mile Road Law, Which Will Likely be Changed

Numerous petitions for new roads in Rush county, which were expected after the end of the war, because of the curtailment of public work for the last year, have not been forthcoming, but residents of Posey township "broke the ice" yesterday when they filed a petition in the auditor's office for the construction of a cement road under the three-mile road law through the town of Arlington.

The road which the property owners seek to have improved runs north and south through Arlington, and if the commissioners grant the petition, approximately a mile of the highway will be improved. The petition will probably come up for consideration before the commissioners at the first monthly meeting of the new year, to be held next Monday.

That there is a demand for the improvement in the vicinity through which the road runs is indicated by the fact that the petition was circulated less than a day and seventy-four signatures were obtained. The petition was drawn up in the auditor's office Wednesday and about two o'clock yesterday afternoon was placed on file with more than the required number of signers.

It is understood that there will be other petitions for new roads in Rush county. In ordinary times, several highways would have been built last year, some of them permanent, but road work has been practically at a standstill since the government took control of agencies which are used in public work, and directed practically all activities toward winning the war.

It is regarded as a very wise policy for taxpayers who want permanent roads built under the three-mile road law, to start their petitions at once because it is thought to be practically certain that this statute, which it is claimed has caused so much injustice in Indiana, will be either repealed or strongly modified at the forthcoming meeting of the state legislature.

Previous to other meetings of the general assembly, there has been much agitation in favor of repealing all together or amending the three-mile road law, and it appears that the agitation will bear some fruit this time. The main objection to the three-mile road law is that it assesses everyone in the township when a new road is built, instead of those who are immediately benefited.

All of the paved streets in Rushville were constructed under the three-mile road law with the exception of Third street, one block at the south end of Perkins street and one-half block at the east end of First street. Many contend that the law is just because, although property owners along the highway improved derive the greatest benefit, everyone is benefited to some extent on the theory that all use the streets and highways and that anything which improves the roads of a given city, town or community is beneficial to every person residing there.

RUMMAGE SALES FOR ARMY

Washington, Jan. 3.—Under a general order issued yesterday by the War Department, property owned by military units, such as pianos, phonographs, libraries, athletic goods and such articles may be disposed of by the organization, and the funds thereby derived added to the unit fund.

KNOCK OFF CAR BY

ELECTRIC CURRENT

Will Eck This Morning For Third Time Suffers Shock During his "Charmed" Life.

HIS RECOVERY IS PROBABLE

First Time he was Knocked off Car at I. & C. Shops, Eck Dislocated His Jaw

Will Eck received an electric shock while working on top of an interurban car at the Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction company's car barns this morning and was knocked off the car, receiving serious injuries. He was taken to Dr. Sexton's hospital and then removed to his home. Although the exact nature of his injuries are not determined, it is believed that he will recover.

Eck evidently has a "charmed" life because this morning's accident was the third time he has been shocked while working at the I. & C. car barns and the second time he has been knocked off the top of a car as the result of coming in contact with electric current.

This morning Eck lit on a pile of break shoes, and his jaw and the back of his head were badly cut and bruised. His right hand also was severely burnt by electricity.

The first thought of workmen when he fell off the car was that he had again dislocated his jaw, because this injury resulted before when he was knocked off while working on top of a car. At that time a wire was run through the upper and lower jaw to hold them in place while the dislocation mended.

Eck received 550 volts of electricity, which was grounded on top of the car. The after effects of an electric shock are always uncertain, but made it impossible today to ascertain definitely how seriously he was hurt.

CASE TO BE SENT TO THE APPELLATE COURT

Appeal of Laura Ivins Riley et al. in Suit to Establish a Lost Will Granted

NEW TRIAL HAD BEEN DENIED

The case of Laura Ivins Riley and others against David Ivins and others, to establish a lost will, will be taken to the appellate court of Indiana, Judge Sparks having granted a motion for an appeal. The court returned finding and judgment for the defendant October 18 and the plaintiffs filed a motion for a new trial. When this morning was overruled, the appeal was sought.

The claim of John T. Tinsworth against Harry B. Armstrong as administrator of the estate of Ralph Armstrong, has been dismissed by the plaintiff and the costs paid.

Motions for new trials have been filed in two cases in which George W. Hall of Spiceland, formerly of this city, is the plaintiff. One is in the case against Jacob Parrish for $235 on a note, in which the court on December 6 returned finding and judgment for the defendant. The other suit was against Jacob and Ollie Parrish for $210 on a note, in which the court returned finding and judgment on the same date for the plaintiff in the sum of $68.90.

WANTS AN ARMY OF 500,000

Baker Advocates Force to Discharge Men In Service

(By United Press.)

Washington, Jan. 3.—Secretary of War Baker today advocated a temporary force army of 500,000 men to facilitate the quick discharge of men who have already seen service. A bill to authorize the organization of this army soon will be submitted to congress, Baker told the house military committee today. The army, he explained, would be of temporary nature and aid to hasten demobilization of present forces.

OMER COLLIER DIES AT CLEVELAND, OHIO

Flumonia Proves Fatal to Former Rushville Cigar Maker and Insurance Man

WIFE AND CHILDREN SICK

Omer Collier, age thirty-seven years, former cigar maker and insurance agent of this city, died of flumonia at a hospital in Cleveland, Ohio, yesterday evening at five o'clock, according to a telegram received by relatives last night. His wife and three children are also confined to the hospital, all afflicted with the influenza.

Relatives feared he would not survive when they learned that pneumonia had developed following the influenza. They first received word last Saturday that Mr. Collier probably had pneumonia and later word confirmed it. The condition of the widow is also said to be serious.

Mr. Collier left here about four months ago and had been working in an airplane factory in Cleveland. He remains will be sent from Cleveland tonight or tomorrow morning and no arrangements for the funeral will be made pending their arrival.

Mr. Collier is survived by the widow and three children, Eugene, Helen and Carson; his mother, Mrs. Mary Collier, of this city; one brother, Harry Collier of Dayton, O.; two sisters, Mrs. William O'Neal of this city and Mrs. Will Downey of Greensburg, and his father, John Collier of Bristow, Oklahoma.

DENT REFUSES TO HANDLE ARMY BILL

Insurgency of Chairman Means Measure will not be Presented to This Congress.

WILL BE UP TO REPUBLICANS

(By United Press.)

Washington, Jan. 3.—Representative Dent, chairman of the house military committee, has refused to handle the war department reorganization bill, it became known today. Dent's insurgency makes it practically certain that the peace time military policy of this nation will not be decided at the present congress.

Representative Kahn, who will become chairman of the committee when the republicans assume control after March 4, will go to Europe this spring to confer with General Pershing and other officials. Data thus gathered will be used to build an army reorganization bill. He and his republican colleagues have decided not to follow the general staff plan. This situation is largely responsible for delay in presenting the bill to congress.

NEW ALTITUDE RECORD

Ipwich, England, Jan. 3.—A new airplane altitude record of 30,500 feet was established here by Captain Lang, pilot observer. The motor stopped at that height, due to exhaustion of the petrol supply, but they landed safely.

APPRAISED VALUE PROPERTY HIGHER

Net Valuation in 1918 Amounts to $24,394,480 as Compared With $22,703,770 in 1917

AN INCREASE OF $1,690,710

Taxes Collectable This Year Are $3,707.40 Greater Than in 1918

Despite Lower Rates

The total net appraised value of the property in Rush county, on which taxes should be paid this year is $24,394,480, as compared to a net valuation in 1917 of $22,703,770. This shows an increase in appraised valuation of $1,690,710, which is due to the fact that assessors last year assessed personal property higher.

Taxes to be collected this year, on paper figure $651,443.23, not counting $647.15 in delinquent taxes due, as compared with $648,735.83 falling due last year. The increase in taxes collectable this year as compared with last year is $3,707.40, which is accounted for by the higher valuation, in spite of the fact that the rate is lower in every unit in the county with the exception of Rushville city, Glenwood and Rushville township. A reduction of five cents in the county tax was instrumental in lowering the rates.

The rate for this year in Rushville city is $4.00 as compared with $3.98 last year and in Rushville township $2.74 as compared with $2.61 in 1918. Glenwood's rate is $2.96 and last year was $2.80.

Other rates are as follows: Carthage $3.62, last year $3.74; Ripley township $2.27, last year $2.50; Posey $2.30, last year $2.53; Walker $2.86, last year $3.10; Orange $2.75, last year $2.85; Anderson $2.65, last year $2.90; Jackson $2.18, last year $2.50; Center $2.09, last year $2.37; Washington $2.09, last year $2.33; Union $2.41, last year $2.60; Noble $2.15, last year $2.57; Richland $1.85, last year $2.39.

The polls listed on the 1918 abstract of taxable property number 3,158 as compared with 3,396 in 1917, the decrease probably being due to so many men of voting age leaving the county on account of the war.

The total net value of the taxables is higher in every unit than in 1917. Appraised values by townships, corporations and cities, on which taxes will be paid this year are as follows:

Carthage $487,330, Ripley township $1,596,365, Posey $1,922,767, Walker $1,599,765, Orange $1,632,705, Anderson $2,064,425, Rushville township $2,311,380, Jackson $1,152,190, Center $1,819,830, Washington $1,567,225, Glenwood corporation $130,585, Union $1,928,285, Noble $1,676,540, Richland $1,268,600, Rushville city $3,226,400.

The taxables are divided as follows:

Land, $11,049,350; improvements, $2,149,710; lots, $680,075; improvements on lots, $1,507,920; total value of real estate, $15,387,055; mortgage exemptions (to be deducted) $482,935; net value of real estate, $14,904,120; steam and electric railroad property, $1,406,340; telegraph and telephone property, $126,600; express company property, $15,350; personal and corporation property $7,922,070.

MANH MAKES CRITICISM

Washington, Jan. 3.—Republican Leader Mann, in the house yesterday criticised the war department for delay in paying soldiers and in dispensing allowances to dependents. Without naming any one, Mr. Mann said much of the trouble was due to the ignorance of department officials and employees and that "Secretary Baker ought to wring the neck of some of the men who are out of work."

MAKE HURRIED SURVEY OF THE HOG SITUATION

County Agent and Food Administrator to Supply State Administration With Information

LOOKING FOR URGENT CASES

The county food administrator and the county agent have been made responsible for information necessary for the federal food administrator to direct the supply of ears to the places of greatest need.

County Food Administrator Lovett and County Agent Detrick are making a hurried survey of the number of hogs to be shipped during this month, and the herds that are finished and are now feeding at a loss. This information will be furnished Dr. Barnard who will use it directing ears to where the need is most urgent.

When hogs are finished and are being fed beyond the point of profit or the farmer is out of feed and cannot find feed, the report on that herd will be marked "urgent," and a special effort will be made to relieve the situation.

It is not expected that the market difficulties will exist much longer. The heavy run of hogs is usually about the middle of December, but is later this winter because the hogs have been held back by embargoes.

How This Little Boy

Recovered Strength After Sickness

Garrett, Texas.—The measles left my little boy aged nine years in a very weak, run down condition—he coughed a good deal, and as medicines did not seem to help him, we finally took him out of school, and thought he would never be strong again. One day I read about the cod liver and iron tonic known as Vinol, and such a change as it has made in my little boy—it stopped his cough, he is now back in school, strong and well.—Mrs. E. A. Wright.

There is nothing like Vinol to restore strength, appetite and vim to pale, sickly children. We strongly recommend Vinol for this purpose. F. B. Johnson & Co., Druggists, and Druggists Everywhere.

PIGS GET WORMS VERY YOUNG

The time to commence feeding ACME WORM BOUNCER is from the time they are old enough to eat. Feed from birth to maturity. It will only take a few cents worth to do it, and as "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," it certainly pays to start the pig off right, and if you do so you can keep him right. Worms are persistent pests and they must be fought continuously. There is more money in keeping your pigs free of worms than to let them get worms and even expel them.

WOMEN REPATRIATED BY BRITISH GOV'T

Sixty Thousand Women in England
Today, Waiting to Sail
For Home

London, Dec. 17. (By Mail)—American, British and Dominion women stranded on the other side of the ocean from home, are going to be repatriated very soon, the British government has decided.

Sixty thousand Canadian women are in England today, waiting for the ban to be lifted so they can return home. The first lot of them sailed late in November. Others will follow as rapidly as possible.

The number of American women is negligible, according to the American consulate. The American government did not put any obstacles in the way of American women wishing to cross the ocean, as did the British government, and the American consulate in England has been visaing women's passports all along. Those who are stranded here remained voluntarily rather than risk U-boats. The British government's decision to refuse passports to British women during the war left English women in foreign lands completely cut off from their homes.

A Big Splash

The day after the signing of the armistice on November 11th the first American shells filled with poison gas reached France. They were the product of a gas producing plant in Maryland upon which the Government had expended $60,000,000. It is true that some gas had been shipped in containers to England and France, there to be placed in shells for the use of the American forces, but the fact remains that the history of the gas service as very closely a repetition of the story of the ordnance and aviation programs—tremendous preparation with mighty little to show for it at the fighting front.

Like the ordnance experts and the officials of the air service, those in charge of the chemical section of the War Department are now engaged in convincing the people that just as the armistice was signed they were on the point of beginning to get ready to start shipments of their product to our armies. Glowing stories are told of the immense amount of gas produced, as if that were the test of efficiency. They claim that "the tons of poisonous gases ready for shipment abroad was considered to be one of the greatest military assets of the nation." Stress is laid on the fact that all along the Atlantic seaboard arsenals, magazines, fields and docks were stacked high with gas containers. Attention is called to the fact that adjoining the $60,000,000 gas plant there is a ten-acre field filled with containers, each holding a ton of the murderous stuff.

And now all this is to end in a big splash. The gas is a total loss. It cannot be converted into any useful purpose, and is a positive danger to the community. As a means of safe disposal it is proposed to take it all out to sea and dump it overboard. What an anti-climax!

Moreover, the hitherto insignificant copper has stepped on the top round of the ladder of public notice. Even the popular nickel cannot pass for much these days without his smooth-rimmed side-kick—the penny.

And with all the humorous recollections of the humble dainty—the Nut—we must from now on look upon its shelly skin as a two-fold forethought of the Creator. Firstly, to protect the kernel in the nut; secondly, to protect privates and Colonels from the gas escapades of another specie of Nuts found betwixt the Rhine and the Baltic Sea.

And say, what has happened to Billy Sunday? Someone must accept the credit for ending the war and forcing the Kaiser to change his views. Surely so able a body as our Rev. William who has turned so many thousands of men from their old tactics, will not let the laurel pass when there is only one, outcast, penitent dutcheland in question.

Perhaps Billy, though, shuns the oddity of having to publicly observe that a fellow possessing such a grand and upright non de plume as William needs assistance to place his oxfords on the gates-ajar-path.

LEGISLATURE MAY NOT MEET 60 DAYS

Some Believe Entire Program can be Completed in Five Weeks if There is no Hitch

LEGISLATORS HAVE BILLS

One Important Measure is Provision of Commission to Study Social Legislation.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 3.—That the legislative session which opens a week from today will not continue the full constitutional time—sixty days—was the belief expressed by administration leaders today. If there is no hitch in the work, some legislative leaders see no reason why the entire program cannot be completed in five weeks.

The republicans will have such a large working majority in each house that unless some unforeseen difficulty arises, they will be able to put through bills, which are already prepared and which have been studied and discussed by the legislators in record time.

Bills drafted by republican leaders of the house and senate carrying out the party's platform pledges, are now in the hands of the legislators. They will be introduced at the opening of the session.

One of the most important measures which has been distributed is that providing for appointment of a commission to study social legislation. The measure was prepared by Sen. Hudgins of Martinsville and Representative Johnsons of Gas City.

It provides that the governors shall appoint a commission of 5 at least one of whom is a woman, to be known as the commission on social legislation.

The members will serve without pay, but allowance is made for their expenses. The committee duty will be to make a careful study of social conditions in the state and make a report to the governor before September 1920, submitting recommendations for legislation including housing, employment, education, illiteracy, Americanization, health, marriage laws, mental defects, and social insurance.

Another similar bill provides for appointment of a commission to study child welfare in the state.

Washington, Jan. 3.—Pay day revealed that there was one man in Washington who could sign President Wilson's name and make it legal.

When the President's Treasury warrant for $6,250 was delivered to the White House yesterday, Chief Clerk Webster indorsed it with "Woodrow Wilson by N. P. Webster attorney in fact." The money was deposited in a local bank subject to the President's checks for cable transfer to Europe.

But Webster couldn't sign any bills that way—not with Congress looking.

ASKS CONGRESS TO CONTINUE CONTROL

Director General McAdoo Says Government Management Should be Given Fair Test

STATEMENT TO COMMITTEE

Predicts Surplus of $100,000,000 Can be Built up For Government During Year

(By United Press.)

Washington, Jan. 3.—Return of the railroads to the several hundred companies, which owned them before the war, is impossible if certain reforms are to be preserved, Director General McAdoo declared in a statement to the senate interstate commerce committee today.

McAdoo declared there are three alternatives in the railroad situation: 1—return to the several hundred companies controlling them before the war; 2—government ownership and control; 3—reconstruction of the railroad may so as to wipe out the hundreds of different companies and substitute a few under strict government control, to combine the advance of unified operation with the initiative of private management.

McAdoo presented a complete review of the policies inaugurated by the railroad administration.

McAdoo warned congress that unless a fair time is given for a test of these policies through continuation of the government control, the government will not feel like holding the roads for the entire 21 month period after the war, which the law fixed as the limit of federal control. He urged congress to continue government control until January 1, 1924, as a means of providing a fair test.

McAdoo predicted that if government control is continued a surplus of $100,000,000 or more will be built up for the government during the year.

He also predicted reduction in rates by the end of 1919. McAdoo said a deficit of about $135,000,000 existed at the end of 1918. This he said is remarkably small because increased rates were in effect for a little more than half of 1918, whereas increased wages and other higher costs appeared all through the year.

THREE MEMBERS OF OLD CO. B ARE LUCKY

Private Charles E. Hockey Says He Hopes Remainder of Unit is
as Fortunate

HEAR GERMAN SHELLS BURST

Private Charles E. Hockey, Battery E., 146th Field Artillery, writing from France, expresses the hope that the remainder of old Company B men are as fortunate as he and two others with him. He writes as follows:

I am writing from an old French V. M. C. A. near Blencourt. We are fifteen miles west of Verdun. There are three company B men in the regiment. Private Elmer Taylor and Private Lawrence Dugout. We are all in hopes of being home within the next few months. Our officers furnish transportation for any of us that care to visit Verdun on Sunday. We are drilling about four hours a day and have plenty to eat and lots of good clothing. We have heard that the remainder of the 38th division is on this side but have never been able to meet them. We all hope that they will have the good luck that we have had.

We sailed from New York June 12 and landed June 24. We sailed down the Irish sea, getting a good view of Ireland and Scotland. We then took a train to Romsey, which is a very interesting old town. After remaining there three days we marched to Southampton and took an English ship to La Havre, France. We landed in France July 19 and were sent out from there as replacement to different divisions on the front. We have all heard and seen German shells burst. We live in hopes of visiting Germany on our way back. France is a very interesting place, full of stone villages and mostly surrounded by stone walls. The streets are narrow with no sidewalks. The civilian population is beginning to return to their homes and they all seem happy and do not care if they do find one end shot out of their homes. They are repairing as many of them as they can and getting the materials for others. We are all loaded with souvenirs which we are in hopes of bringing home with us.

'BLACK BOYS' MAKE SAFE TRIP CERTAIN ASSIST WAR BOARD

Hundreds of These Men work Forty Feet Below the Water Line in the Vessel.

IN DANGEROUS POSITION

Crew of George Wasoingthn on Four Hour, off Eight Hours as Schedule of Work.

Paris, Dec. 15. (By Mail).—The "black boys" they call the men aboard the George Washington who run the boilers and engines and were responsible for the safe prompt arrival of President Wilson to peace party in France.

There are hundreds of these men who work forty feet below the water line in the vessel and who in time of danger, have about one chance in a score of escaping if the boat is mined or torpedoed.

Their first job when they got aboard the George Washington, seized more than a year ago, was to get her boilers and machinery in order after the Germans had sought to put her out of commission. They found the great cylinders in the engine room broken; pistons were bent almost double, and many pieces were thrown overboard.

"I will take my hat off to the men who can get this boat in shape to be of any use in this war," was the boast of the vessel's German commander when his destructive job completed. His hat may be taken off to members of the "black gang", they got things back into shape in time to transport over 50,000 American troops to France in the last year. The first trip was made just one year ago this month.

These boys have an "on four hours" off eight hours' schedule of work. With their daily drills, inspections, etc., they get a maximum of five and a half hours sleep in 24. Yet they're a happy bunch and their leisure is rendered pleasantly by music in their great sleeping room, entertainments of all kinds, and good food.

CONNERSVILLE WILL PLAY

Basketball Game at the Graham Annex Gymnasium Tonight

Rushville will meet a time-honored opponent, Connersville, in a basketball game at the Graham Annex this evening. The rivalry between these two high schools is probably greater than that between Rushville and any other school. For this reason a large crowd always gathers when Connersville plays because it is certain there will be a fast game. The dope is all favorable to Rushville since the team has struck its stride and defeated both Brookville and Richmond.

DAILY HEALTH TALKS

What Doctor Pierce Has Done For Humanity!

BY DOCTOR CRIFFS.

It has always seemed to me that Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., should be placed near the top when a list of America's great benefactors is written. He studied and conquered human diseases to a degree that few realize. Whenever he found a remedy that overcame disease, he at once announced it in the newspapers and told where it could be bought at a small price. He did not follow the usual custom of keeping the ingredients secret, so that the rich only could afford to buy the medicine, but openly printed the name of each root and herb he used. And so to-day the names of Dr. Pierce and his medicines are widely known, and they stand for better health and better citizenship.

One of this great physician's most successful remedies is known as Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. These are little, sugar-coated pills, composed of Mayapple, leaves of aloe, root of jalap—things that Nature grows in the ground. These Pellets are safe because they move the bowels gently, leaving no bad after-effects, as so many pills do. Very often they make a person who takes them feel like a new man or woman, for they cleanse the intestines of hard, decayed and poisonous matter that accumulates when one is constipated. If you are constipated, by all means go to your druggist and get some of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They may prove to be the very thing your system requires to make you well and happy.

Report for Week Ending Dec. 24 Shows State Labor Supply and Demand About Equal.

SURPLUS IN INDIANAPOLIS

Surplus of 3,000 Workers Reported in Toledo, and 500 in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 3.—Reports received by telegram each week by United States Department of Labor, serve as a barometer in making replacements, allocating labor, curtailment and cancellation of war contracts and the demobilization of the Army, according to a statement authorized today by the United States Employment Service. These reports are compiled for the information and assistance of the Community War Labor Boards, Directors of the Public Service Reserve, County Agricultural agents and agencies co-operating with them in their work as Bureaus for the Returning Soldiers, Sailors and Civilian War Workers.

The report for the week ending Dec. 24th show that in Indiana the labor supply and demand are about equal, except in Indianapolis, where there is a surplus.

Through the Middle West, a small shortage is reported from Joliet, Illinois, and in other parts of the same state the supply and demand are about equal. In Detroit, Michigan the supply is said to be sufficient to take care of all demands.

From Ohio, a surplus of 3,000 workers is reported in Toledo, 500 more are reported idle in Cincinnati and in Dayton there are 5,000 unemployed who formerly were engaged largely on war contracts. Akron shows a shortage of 2,000, which is 1,000 less than the shortage reported for the previous week. Youngstown where also a shortage was reported, now has a more nearly sufficient supply of workers.

The report from every section of the nation shows the iron and steel and leather products to be about "holding their own" in the total of men employed as compared with the previous week; food products show an increased number employed; miscellaneous industries, which include those not classified under one of the principal basic lists, and the Textile products show substantial gains. Shortages continue in the mining districts of Pennsylvania and in the mills of New England. On the Pacific coast there is unemployment in San Francisco and Oakland, with other large centers reporting the supply equal to the demand.

For the week ending December 14th the Employment Service registered 132,798 referred 127,315 and placed 94,026. Of the registration 116,013 were men, 16,785 women. Applications for help filed during the week totaled 273,636, of which 240,619 were for men and 33,018 for women.

APPEALED TO BRITISH MINISTRY ABOUT TEA

Colony at Peace Conference Feared It Would Have to Give up Time-Honored Custom

AGAINST PARIS FOOD RULE

London, Dec. 14.—(By Mail).—Great Britain's official colony—between 400 and 900 strong—at the peace conference, is going to have home British cooking, cooked from British food by British cooks at the government's expense.

The famous British tea hour falls in a period during which French food restrictions forbid the serving of milk. Alarmed at the prospect of "no tea," several prospective delegates appealed to the British food ministry to see if "something could not be done."

The result was it was discovered that owing to high prices in Paris, the government could save about 50 percent by providing the food itself, cooking it and serving it independently of Parisian caterers, in the 3 hotels requisitioned by the French governments for the British staffs.

The army and navy canteen board will have charge.

LAXATIVE for Aged People

THE BANE of old age is constipation. The bowels become weak and unable to perform their functions without aid. For this purpose only the mildest and gentlest laxative should be used. The use of harsh cathartics aggravates the trouble and makes the constipation worse. Chamberlain's Tablets are a favorite with people of middle age and older on account of their gentle action.

An Interview

An interview with Knecht & Gartin, local Buick distributors, makes certain that the purchaser of a Buick car between now and the end of the 1919 season is not running any chance that the price will be subject to further change during that period.

"We have just received a letter from the Home Office," said Messrs. Knecht and Gartin, "containing the revised price schedule effective January first, 1919, covering the various Buick models during the remainder of the season. Four models have been reduced in price and the other two remain untouched.

"There has been considerable speculation as to what the Buick Motor Company was going to do about the prices of their cars, as the close of the war left things in such an uncertain condition regarding the price and quantities of raw material available that a good many people felt it would be impossible for the really big manufacturers to find their bearings for some time to come.

"This prompt action on the part of the Company shows that they have been able to clear the situation up sooner than anybody expected, and I for one am delighted with the announcement so early in the season.

"Their war orders which have been demanding the major part of their energies have been completed and the announcement of the present prices is evidence that the Buick Motor Company now has a measure of the situation and sufficient material is in sight that will permit laying out a definite building schedule which again proves the buyer of a Buick automobile is at all times protected against unwarranted price changes.

"Orders for Buick cars are piling up on us very fast and I feel reasonably sure that we shall be able to take care of the greater part of them within a reasonable time. We shall continue to follow our old policy of filling orders, and will make every effort to see that no favoritism is shown our waiting list which plan has worked out so admirably in the past.

"Buick enthusiasts appreciate the importance of this announcement, because all uncertainty has now been removed, both as to the possibility of getting Buick cars this year and the possibility of the prices being raised or lowered."—Adv.

GETS 10 TIMES MORE EGGS, AND TELLS HOW

One-Fifth of Mr. Miller's Hens Laid Twice As Much As All The Others

"We separated 20 hens that didn't lay and fed them Don Sung. The balance of our 120 hens we left in the hen house. All received the same care. The 20 that got Don Sung commenced to lay about a week after receiving it; already we are getting from 4 to 9 eggs a day from them. The 100 hens not receiving Don Sung only laid from 1 to 4 eggs a day."—Andrew D. Miller, Kokomo, Ind.

Mr. Miller had read a lot about Don Sung, and naturally wanted to try it. He started feeding it in zero weather (January, 1918), one of the coldest months in history. His results speak for themselves. You can try Don Sung, as he did, under this offer:

Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that Don Sung pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, simply tell us and your money will be refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) works directly on the egg-laying organs, and is also a splendid tonic. It is easily given in feed, improves the hen's health, makes her stronger and more active, in any weather, and starts her laying.

Try Don Sung for 30 days and if it doesn't get you the eggs and matter how cold or wet the weather, your money will be refunded.

Lafayette, Ind., Jan. 3.—Indiana's gardens yielded a crop worth $15,000,00 last summer, according to estimates by Purdue University experts. Arrangements are already being made to continue the home garden movement on a large scale next spring and summer.

Six hundred and forty thousand gardens were planted in the state it is estimated. This was an increase in number of 28 percent and an increase in value of products by 50 percent over the previous year.

About 100,000 acres were devoted to growing garden stuff for home consumption.

The Second Installment must be paid on or before the
FIRST MONDAY IN NOVEMBER, 1919.

No tax receipts will be held out until taxes are paid in full.

Extracts From the Statutes of Indiana.

That each person or taxpayer charged with taxes on a duplicate in the hands of a County Treasurer may pay the full amount of such taxes on or before the first Monday in May, or may at his option, pay one-half thereof on or before the first Monday in May, and the remaining half on or before the first Monday in November, in the manner prescribed by law. All road taxes to be added to the first installment. When the first installment is not paid prior to the first Monday in May, the taxes for the whole year become delinquent. The Treasurer will not be responsible for the penalty and charges on delinquent taxes resulting from any omission of the person paying to state definitely on what property, in whose name and in what township or corporation it was assessed. Persons owing delinquent taxes should pay them at once. The law is of such character that there is no option left the Treasurer but to enforce the collection of delinquent taxes, however much he may regret to collect the same, by sale of property. The owner of the property on the first day of March in any year, shall be liable for the payment of all taxes of that year. The purchaser of property on the first day of March shall be considered as owner on that day. Sec. 108. All property, both personal and real, situated in any county, shall be liable for the taxes, penalties, interests, and costs to the owners thereof, in such county, and no partial payment of such taxes, penalties, interests or costs shall discharge or release any part or portion of such property until the whole be paid; which lien shall in no wise be affected or destroyed by any sale or transfer of any such personal property. Sec. 944, R. S.

The Treasurer has no option in rebating the penalty on taxes allowed to go delinquent. Taxpayers are particularly notified that all Road Tax is due and payable with the first installment. No County Order will be paid to persons owing delinquent taxes and all parties are warned against buying the same.

The Annual Sale of Delinquent Lands and Lots will take place on the Second Monday in February, 1919.

PARTICULAR ATTENTION

TAXPAYERS SHOULD EXAMINE THEIR RECEIPTS before leaving the Treasurer's Office, and see that they are correct. Those who have lands or other property in more than one township, must see that they have a receipt for all.

Rushville, Indiana, January 1st, 1919.

CHARLES A. FRAZEE,
Treasurer of Rush County.

AUDITOR'S SPECIAL NOTICE

Parties having School Fund Loans on which interest is delinquent will please give the payment of said interest their attention before March 1st, as the law requires the prompt collection of said interest.

HUNS STARTED TO ROOF OVER THESEA

Germans Built Trainbeds to Shelter Submarines at Bruges, From Dropping Bombs

CONCRETE ROOFS 11 FT. THICK

4,000 Workmen Employed in Building Sheds Until Huns Forced to Abandon Bruges

(By United Press.)

London, Dec. 14. (By Mail.)—The Germans built great "trainbeds" in the water to shelter their submarines at Bruges, Belgium, from bombs dropped from the air.

The sheds have concrete roofs 11 feet thick, and are of massive proportions. From early in 1917 until the Huns were forced to abandon Bruges altogether, 4,000 workmen were employed in building the great sheds for the undersea boats.

Hundreds of concrete pillars, each 2 feet thick and 25 feet high, supported the heavy roof. Eight of the shelters had been completed, and the 9th was being built, when the Germans decided to run along home.

In the very early days of the war, the Germans clearly planned the harbors at Zeebrugge and Ostend as permanent bases and repair stations for their submarines, the original boats being built at the Hoboken Works, near Antwerp. The first large repair works appear to have been situated at the Atelier de la Marine at Ostend, but it is probable that the docks at Bruges which are connected with Zeebrugge by a ship canal, were being developed at an early period of the war.

Largely owing to offensive naval operations off the Belgian coast, assisted by aircraft, the 2 harbors became exceedingly unhealthy shelters for such comparatively fragile craft as submarines, and after the bombardment of May 1916, the large floating docks at Ostend were towed round to Zeebrugge, and so up to Bruges.

Following up this initial victory with great vigor British airmen commenced, in January, 1917, an intensive bombing campaign, directed chiefly against the docks at Bruges, the lock-gates and harbor at Zeebrugge, and the Ship Canal itself, which was, of course, the only outlet by which the submarine could gain access to the sea.

Some idea of the severity of these attacks may be gained from the fact that no fewer than 6123 bombs were dropped upon Bruges docks alone, while a similarly large number were dropped upon Zeebrugge and Ostend.

Apart from the immense and continuous damage caused to the Mole, sidings, quays, railways and shipping at Zeebrugge, the lock-gates themselves—a singularly difficult target to hit even from a low height—were kept practically always under repair. Indeed, on several occasions, as the result of direct hits by British airmen, one of the gates had to be removed by immense floating cranes, and a spare gate fitted, the damaged gate being towed laboriously to Bruges for repair in dry dock.

Owing to the great damage which was caused by the Germans upon their evacuation of the docks, it is difficult to differentiate between their deliberate work and the destructions resulting from the terrific bombing from the air during the last few months of the war. Information from various sources, however, makes it abundantly clear that the enemy's decision to give up the Port of Bruges, as repair base for submarines, was in the main, due to his inability to defend it against the increasingly powerful attacks from the air.

The biggest explosion ever experienced in Bruges was caused by British airmen at La Brugeoise works, May 31, 1918. The conflagration was felt all over the city, and the flames lit up the sky for many miles around. It is said that the explosion wrought so much destruction of valuable machinery that work was never properly resumed in these extensive factories.

London's 22,000 policemen guard more than 4,000 miles of streets and at least 1,250,000 houses and shops.

Only one-third of the world's population uses bread as a daily food. One-half subsists chiefly on rice.
